Final ARPA input session to be held virtually this evening

Residents throughout the city are encouraged to show their love for Milwaukee by sharing their input on how they believe the city's remaining $92.7 million in federal American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) funding should be spent during the final public input meeting being held TONIGHT - Thursday, February 22 from 5:30 – 7:30 p.m. virtually. Ald. Milele A. Coggs, chair of the city's ARPA Funding Allocation Task Force, notes that those interested in participating can sign up by visiting bit.ly/ARPA2023. After registering, a confirmation email will be sent with instructions on how to join the meeting.

Additionally, members of the public are invited to provide input via an online survey available in three languages as follows:
https://engagemke.com/arp/survey_english/; https://engagemke.com/arp/survey_spanish/;
https://engagemke.com/arp/survey_hmong

A quorum of ARPA Funding Allocation Task Force members may or may not be present. In the event of a quorum, no action other than information gathering will be taken. Additional information can be found by visiting milwaukee.gov/LoveMyMKE.

Reasonable accommodations provided for persons with disabilities upon request. Call 414-286-3475 or email ADACoordinator@milwaukee.gov.
